

Carolina-Duke Graduate Program in German Studies

Interested in applying?

Attend our Zoom Info Session

November 4, 2024 @ 12PM EST

CDG online application deadline is:
December 10th 2024

CDG students receive 6 years of generous funding, plus summer, travel, and research support. CDG is a doctoral program homed at 2 renowned, top-ranked universities.

17 faculty members have expertise in all historical and theoretical fields and specialize in literature, film & media, philosophy, and cultural history.

Questions? Contact

Prof. Tobias Wilke
twilke@unc.edu

Prof. Sarah Pourciau
sarah.pourciau@duke.edu

Visit us at

carolina-duke-grad.german.duke.edu

Scan this QR code to join the Info Session or visit the link below:

<https://duke.zoom.us/j/98189397071>

CDG is located in North Carolina's Research Triangle. The city of Durham, home to Duke, is 10 miles from UNC-Chapel Hill. Durham and Chapel Hill, together with Raleigh, boast a combined population of roughly 2 million people. Duke and UNC are connected by regular shuttle service. Raleigh-Durham International Airport is a convenient hub for domestic and international flights with daily direct flights to Europe.